

OXFORD METHODIST CIRCUIT RECORDS

These records relate to the Wesleyan Methodist, Primitive Methodist, United Methodist and Methodist Church Circuits and chapels in Oxford and surrounding area.

1718-2011

The Methodist movement was started by John Wesley in Oxford and from there the Oxford Circuit and its constituent chapels developed. Before the Methodists united in 1932 there were three different circuits in Oxford; The Wesleyan Methodists, the United Methodist and the Primitive Methodists.

As the Oxford Circuit grew in size Sections were formed to help manage chapels in the surrounding county. These Sections often became Circuits in their own right. As well as Oxford we hold Section records for:

Abingdon which from 1959 became the Wantage and Abingdon Methodist Circuit records. See NM6 for other records

Thame which became the Thame and Watlington Methodist Circuit. Please see NM3 for other records.

Wantage please see MN6 for other records

Historically in the nineteenth century the Oxford Circuit fell within the Wesleyan Methodist Oxford District. It was part of the Oxford and Gloucester District between 1932-1957 and is currently part the Oxford and Leicestershire District. These District records are deposited at Leicestershire Record Office.

The John Wesley Society is an Oxford University Society that is affiliated to the Wesley Memorial Church. We hold some records including the Society minutes and reports on projects.

The collection includes records of individual chapels. It is not always possible to state whether a chapel belonged originally to the Wesleyan, Primitive or United Methodist connexion, especially in villages where there were chapels of both denominations.

The collection is organised as follows:

- NM5/A Wesleyan Methodist Circuit
- NM5/B Oxford United Methodist Circuit
- NM5/C Oxford Primitive Methodist Circuit
- NM5/D Wesley Memorial Circuit
- NM5/E Oxford District and Section
- NM5/F Oxford University John Wesley Society
